

Grace Notes

One New Episcopal Church From Two Historic Parishes

Volume 6 Number 9

October 2026

Happy October, good people!

We had a wonderful launch to our program year last month!

A few highlights include a terrific “Welcome Back!” picnic on the 13th; Dennis Parker’s talk on Erasure in America at All Saints’ Lunch and Learn program on the 16th; our Grace Safe Church training on the 19th; the vestry continuing their planning work, building on last month’s meeting and half-day August planning session on the 23rd; and all our ministry groups starting to kick into high gear again. Our regular and seasonal tenants are active in our spaces again; we hosted two Saturday Grief Groups, as usual each month; there was another informal Tea & Talk on the 24th; Grace hosted the Maryknoll collaborative Love Your Neighbor on the 28th in the St. Paul’s Campus Parish Hall, and much more. Thank you everyone for the hard work and success! Thanks be to God and to you! Together, we truly make a difference for each other and Ossining.

As always, you will learn about what’s going on at Grace in this newsletter. The two most important items are the beginning of our 2027 Stewardship Program and the continuing events in our discernment of the future of Grace Ossining. More information on the Stewardship Program is on page 4. For this report, I will highlight a few key points in our planning events, with more from our wardens.

When will the actual campus decision take place? That’s hard to answer at this point because the vestry has decided the parish won’t vote until everyone feels that they have received enough information and had enough time to process the information in conversation with others to be ready for a vote. Right now, the vestry has penciled in the February 14, 2027 annual meeting as the date of the vote, but it could be sooner if we feel ready...or later if we need more time. However, the vestry has determined that we will make the final decision no later than June 30, 2027, so it will be sometime this program year and before our July 2027 summer slowdown.

How can we each get ready for the community discussions and the vote? Right now, the most important question to ask and answer is: What will a successful Grace Ossining look like and what will we be doing? Our two historic parishes merged so Grace would be a successful Episcopal Church in Ossining and would thrive for years to come. What does Grace thriving look like and mean to you?

To begin to answer that question, we will meet on Wednesday, October 14, from 10:00 AM–1:00 PM in the Parish Hall on our St. Paul’s campus. This meeting will also be livestreamed and recorded. Lunch will be provided, so stay for that, too. Here’s what we will talk about together:

- What does it mean for Grace to be “successful”?
- What does it mean for Grace to “thrive”?
- What do you want to see started, for example, so Grace can be more successful and thrive more?
- What do you want to see decrease so Grace can be more successful and thrive for decades to come?

There are no wrong answers! So consider what “Grace as a successful and thriving parish” means and looks like to you and come to share your ideas in conversation with others.

Note: we know Wednesday is not ideal, especially for those working, but our very busy October calendar forces this first date. If you can’t make it, please email your answers to a friend attending who can share them and/or email them to graceossining@gmail.com and I will share them for you with the group. We’ll share the results of this discussion in emails, announcements, and the November newsletter. After this meeting, we will email parishioners summaries of the St. Paul’s and Trinity campus assessments done by Parish Property Management, the engineering firm Grace hired to assess all the maintenance and repair issues of both campuses with budgets for all the needed repairs and improvements.

To guide the next steps of this work with transparency and care, the vestry has chartered the Campus Future Committee, co-chaired by Jo Ann McGrath and Richard Shaw, The Committee’s objectives are to:

- Ensure every parishioner has easy access to the PPM report, campus valuations, and financial summaries;
- Organize parish-wide informational sessions to plan these meetings and information flow;
- Design a clear, accessible, and orderly voting process, consistent with our parish bylaws.

The tentative schedule at this point is to hold at least two more meetings:

- Sunday, October 25: The Buildings & Grounds Committee will answer people’s questions about the PPM reports. They are each over 30 pages long with over 90 photos per campus report and can be confusing. Of course, lunch will be provided. The one question our B&G Team can’t answer is how the repair budgets were determined because we don’t have the experience or the software to generate those numbers. But – fear not!
- November: A representative from PPM will visit Grace to answer all those questions and concerns in our third Grace Community Discussion. The exact date is still to be determined.

As you can see, a lot of work has been done by the vestry to design a thorough, transparent, and inclusive community discussion and decision process. Please mark your calendars to attend in person or over livestream as we begin our Grace Community discussions.

I close with a reading we will hear at worship on October 11. It's from St. Paul's Letter to the Philippians (4:1-9). As context, this community was in crisis. Paul, their founder, was imprisoned and in danger. There were strong disagreements in the Philippian community; two parishioners, Euodia and Syntyche, were in particularly hot dispute. Folks had died, times were precarious, keeping the community together without their leader proved trying... And so what was Paul's best advice? What did he urge them to remember and focus on in their hard times?

Rejoice in the Lord always; again I will say, Rejoice. Let your gentleness be known to everyone. The Lord is near. Do not worry about anything, but in everything by prayer and supplication with thanksgiving let your requests be made known to God. And the peace of God, which surpasses all understanding, will guard your hearts and your minds in Christ Jesus.

Finally, beloved, whatever is true, whatever is honorable, whatever is just, whatever is pure, whatever is pleasing, whatever is commendable, if there is any excellence and if there is anything worthy of praise, think about these things. Keep on doing the things that you have learned and received and heard and seen in me, and the God of peace will be with you.

The most momentous decision you have already made was to merge St. Paul's and Trinity into Grace Church. It was a heroic act of sacrifice, faithfulness, loss, hope, and commitment to The Good News as the Episcopal Church understands and promotes it – which can be very different from other Christian denominations!

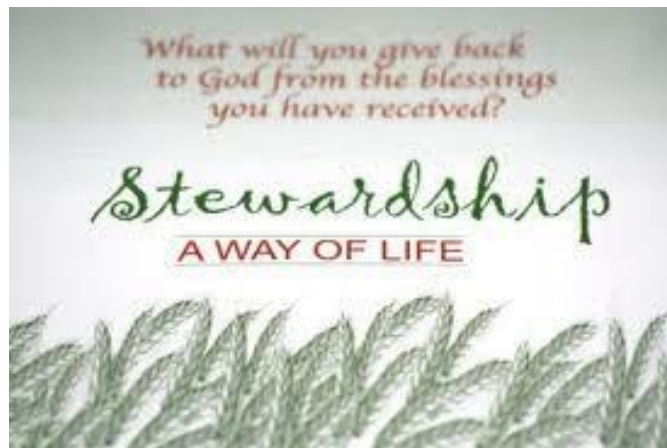

This program year, Grace faces its second momentous decision: what Grace's permanent campus situation will be. Like the first great decision, this one too has the capacity to tear apart the community and destroy the Episcopal presence in Ossining. Once again, you are called – like the Philippians – to put aside personal preference and to come together in discussion and discernment to jointly decide what is best for Grace to succeed and thrive (as opposed to what we may personally prefer). It's a lot to ask of you. But you have been proven to be faithful, wise, committed, and caring people. And you are literally the world experts on how to be a successful Episcopal Church in Ossining. There is nobody else anywhere who can better answer these questions for Grace. We must first figure out together what it means for Grace to be successful and to thrive for decades to come so we can then determine what things Grace needs – like a campus – to be successful and to thrive for decades to come.

As St. Paul said to the Philippians, so he says to us in our hard times and deliberations: "The God of peace will be with you." Thanks be to God!

With great admiration for you, and with continued faith, hope, and love,

Yours,

Fr. Hal+

OCTOBER IS STEWARDSHIP SEASON.

A pledge is a response to God in thanks for the Good News and is between you and God. A pledge is a statement that Grace is your spiritual home. The amount of the pledge is inconsequential; there is no financial requirement. You can literally pledge $1 or $10,000 and both are valid pledges. Pledging is particularly important this year. Attendance is also important, but if you don't pledge, you won't be able to vote on Grace's campus decision as per the Grace bylaws you created and voted on years ago. So please be sure to pledge if you are a current Grace attendee who wants to vote!

If you are a current Grace attendee and pledger, you will be getting a letter in the mail this month from vestry members encouraging you to pledge, so be on the lookout in your "snail mail" for the vestry's stewardship campaign to launch in a couple weeks.

And mark your calendars for Grace's Pledge and Anniversary Sunday: November 8th at St. Paul's with a luncheon for the community afterwards. Be sure to come! This is a lovely event each year. It is good to be together over food, fellowship, and worship. See if your buddies need a ride with you, too.

Gratefully,

Fr. Hal+

DEACON'S MESSAGE

MY UNEXPECTED AND COMPLETELY DELIGHTFUL DINNER WITH THE ARCHBISHOP OF CANTERBURY

In late September, I had the great privilege to attend a gala dinner and fundraiser whose guest of honor was The Most Reverend and Right Honorable, the Lord Archbishop of Canterbury. Also known as Dame Sarah Mullally, the 106th Archbishop of Canterbury, and the first woman ever to head the Anglican communion. It took 1,400 years, but we now have a woman bishop heading our worldwide church. Many are happy, some are not, but all are watching closely to see what changes she will bring.

Dame Sarah was a bold choice for this post. She was ordained later in life, after having a career as a cancer nurse. She eventually became the chief nurse for all of England, which certainly shows she has administrative skills, as well as a pastoral heart. Prior to becoming Archbishop, she was Bishop of London.

In late summer, my spouse told me her employer, St. Paul's Riverside, would be purchasing tickets to attend the fundraising gala in Greenwich, and they would give the tickets to as many members of their youth group who wanted to go. My initial reaction was not positive. "Will teenagers really appreciate this historic event?" Given that my spouse heads Christian Education for the church, she was invited to go, along with youth and the clergy. The Nor'easter kept one young lady away, so I was given the extra ticket. I was moved by Archbishop's remarks, which focused on the importance of ministry and mission. "God is at work in us in ways we may not yet understand."

I loved her words; I loved her sincerity. I also loved that her mitre sparkled. She actually had glitter in her vestments, which seemed to me a perfect touch of fun. I was very impressed with her warm and genuine presence. Ours was the only table with young people and she came to visit the teens several times. She spoke to each one, asked good questions, and encouraged each to pursue their interests and passions. Those teens certainly did appreciate the event and came away inspired. So much for my assumptions!

The following morning, she delivered the sermon at Christ Church, Greenwich, then at evensong at St. Thomas in Manhattan.

Our new archbishop was installed earlier this year. I suggest you watch the service by clicking here. The gospel was read in Spanish by a woman priest. The anthem sung by African women. The message was clear: we are doing things differently.

WARDEN'S REPORT

"We need God's Grace. We need each other." – Bishop Matthew Heyd

We mark our Fifth Anniversary as Grace Episcopal this November, and our work continues..... On Friday, October 2nd, everyone was sent an email invitation to serve on the Campus Future Committee. This is a critical phase in the process of discerning Grace Episcopal Church's future. Here is what our Co-Chairs Richard Shaw and Jo Ann McGrath need from our parish family:

We are seeking parishioners who are current, regular, and contributing members of Grace Church to serve on the working group. We hope to bring together people with a range of backgrounds, perspectives, and ties to both our campus traditions, as well as different generations within our parish.

The committee will meet approximately once or twice a month from October 2026 through the winter. Members will assist in reviewing and preparing presentation materials, facilitating parish discussion sessions, and establishing the practical logistics for voting and teller oversight.

A complete description of the process and how to volunteer for the committee are on page 7. It is important for us all to look at every option and to respectfully proceed with open minds, open to reimagined possibilities and to potential outcomes. This is the moment for you to step up and use your voice and talents, to sit at our table, and be a part of this historic moment in Grace Episcopal Church's future. You are invited to the table! RSVPs are due this Thursday, October 8th.

And Bishop Heyd is absolutely right when he says "We need each other."

Thanks for your consideration of this most important appeal!

GRACE CHURCH CAMPUS FUTURE COMMITTEE: INVITATION TO SERVE

Over the past year, our parish has been engaged in careful discernment regarding the long-term stewardship of our two campuses, Trinity and St. Paul's. To help inform this journey, the vestry commissioned PPM to complete an objective Facility Condition Assessment of our buildings. That report provides comprehensive engineering data on the physical condition, required repairs, and deferred maintenance across both properties.

To guide the next steps of this work with transparency and care, the vestry has chartered the Campus Future Committee. Our responsibility as co-chairs, together with a working group of parishioners, is to lead a thoughtful, open process focused on two primary responsibilities:

1. Communication and Community Discussion: Ensuring every parishioner has easy access to the PPM report, campus valuations, and financial summaries; organizing parish-wide informational sessions (including recorded options for those who cannot attend in person); and maintaining a shared list of questions and answers so all voices are heard.
2. Voting Process Design: Designing a clear, accessible, and orderly voting process, consistent with our parish bylaws, leading up to the February 2027 Annual Meeting. The parish vote will serve as an essential input to the strategic plan that Father Hal, Priest in Charge, will submit to the Bishop and the Diocesan Standing Committee for canonical consent.

Committee Participation and Commitment

We are seeking parishioners who are current regular and contributing members of Grace Church to serve on the working group. We hope to bring together people with a range of backgrounds, perspectives, and ties to both our campus traditions, as well as different generations within our parish.

The committee will meet approximately once or twice a month from October 2026 through the winter. Members will assist in reviewing and preparing presentation materials, facilitating parish discussion sessions, and establishing the practical logistics for voting and teller oversight.

How to Express Interest

If you feel called to serve on the committee, or if you would like to suggest a fellow parishioner, please contact either of us directly or reach out through the church office by Thursday, October 8, 2026.

If more volunteers step forward than can be accommodated on an effective working group, the co-chairs, in consultation with the vestry, will select a balanced roster representing different segments of our community. Regardless of whether you serve on this committee, every parishioner will have multiple opportunities to review all materials, attend open discussion forums, ask questions, and take part in shaping the future of Grace Church.

Thank you for your prayers, your commitment, and your ongoing care for our parish community.

LOAVES AND FISH

On September 12th, Grace served 43 meals to our guests and sent home 26 more meals. The menu was pork loin, roasted potatoes, Mexican bean salad, with bread and dessert from ShopRite in Croton. Some people asked for second and even third helpings. Hungry people. And a couple of older construction workers helped by folding chairs on their way out. They weren't asked to; they just did!

INSTALLATION OF CANON SAM OWEN

On Sunday, September 20, 2026, starting at 4:00 PM, the Rev. Sam Owen was installed as Diocesan Canon for Westchester and Putnam Counties and Canon for Global and Local Organizing.

The service was at St. Thomas' in Mamaroneck. There were many Clergy attending from around the diocese, as well as choir members from All Saints' Briarcliff, St. Augustines' Croton and others. I verged along with three Acolytes from St. Peters Peekskill, who serviced as Crucifier and Torch Bearers. Steve Pendzuk served as unofficial photographer for the event and there are about 260 (!) pictures.

KEEPING "GOD'S PEOPLE SAFE"

"The commandment we have from him is this: those who love God must love their brothers and sisters also." – I John 4:21

Hello Everyone,

We are working very hard to get Safe Church training completed in a timely fashion by everyone who needs to do it. Our goal is November 15th. If anyone needs help with logging in or has other questions, I can meet after Church on the 11th for a few minutes. You can also contact me at 914-523-8464 or email me at katependzuk@gmail.com to make other arrangements. (If you haven't received an email from me by September 15th, it means you aren't required to take the training.)

I log in to Safe Church regularly to see who has logged in and what sections have been finished. Unfortunately, I don't know when you started a course, only if you've logged in to the website and finished a course. Here are our numbers for those enrolled in Safe Church

35 enrolled:

10 completed – (including most of the paid staff)

3 are working with me privately on a regular basis to complete the courses

17 have not started (including not logged in)

1 has completed 50% or more

4 have completed 50% or less

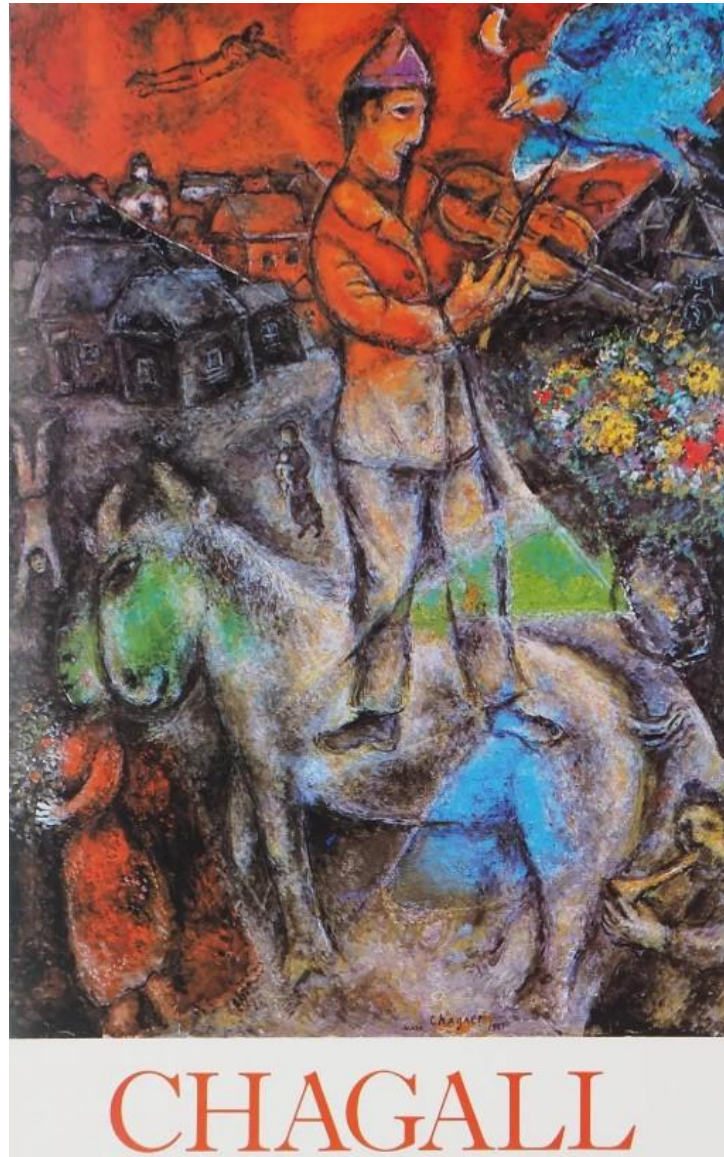

The Diocese of New York is holding a Safe Church workshop at Grace's St. Paul's Campus on October 17th, from 9:00 – 3:00. If you are considering attending, please let me know so I can give you some information you need to register. You can then click here to register. They request that you can bring your own laptop and headset but can provide them if you need that. You also need to register by October 14th. No walk-ins will be allowed!

Thank you for participating!

GRACE GRIEF GROUP

We meet on the second and fourth Saturdays of the month at 10:00 AM at our St Paul campus Family Room at 40 Ganung Drive. Anyone who may be experiencing a loss, seeking a safe space to listen, learn, and feel supported is invited to our gatherings.

This month's dates are the 10th and the 24th.

The Loneliness of Grief

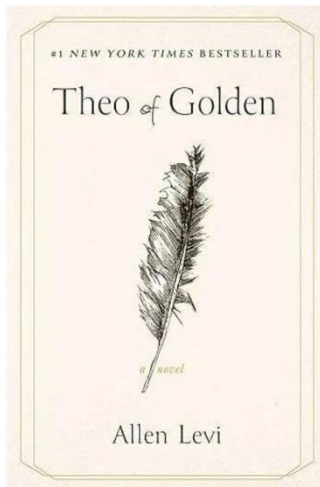

There is a loneliness in grief that words rarely reach.
It comes from carrying someone in your heart who no longer walks beside you.
Others see the world as it is.
You see it as it was when they were here.
You notice the empty chair, the unsent message, the story left untold.
And though you may be surrounded by people, part of you is forever searching for the one face you cannot find.

That is the solitude of grief—living between memory and reality, loving someone who is gone and missing them in ways no one else can fully understand.

THE #1 NEW YORK TIMES BESTSELLING
PHENONEMON

This inspirational debut novel, Theo of Golden by Allen Levi, has touched many readers by showing how a complete stranger can connect with others and make a profound difference.

Perhaps a random person once gave you an unexpected, generous gift or recognized something in you that no one else has ever noticed? Or maybe you have ideas on how to spread kindness in your own community?

This book feels like a perfect choice for us during what promises to be a challenging time. I hope you will accept this opportunity to enjoy this novel and imagine positive possibilities for the future with TBC!
